A Common Council holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Wednesday the 17th Day of November, 1773.

RESOLVED, That it is the Opinion of this Court, that the various false and inflammatory Paragraphs and Letters, which have of late appeared in the public Papers, have very much contributed to mislead the Minds of the People, and prompt them to commit Acts repugnant to Law, and a well-regulated Police: And that the Author or Authors of all such Paragraphs and Letters merit the severest Censure of this Court, as Enemies to Peace and good Order, and as indulging themselves in a Licentiousness which has a direct Tendency to destroy the glorious and invaluable Liberty of the Press.
